Sivit & Wineries – perfect armony

PROFESSIONAL SOLUTIONS FOR THE WINE INDUSTRY

In the food industry, hygiene is of paramount importance. Sivit resin coatings are a particularly suitable solution for this diverse production environment, as they feature continuous, non-toxic, and easily sanitizable surfaces.

Sivit produces formulations and application systems capable of meeting strict regulatory requirements, offering durable, functional, and certified solutions, particularly with regard to:

- high resistance to contact with wine, acidic and basic substances;
- high mechanical strength;
- resistance to continuous thermal stress;
- ease of cleaning and resistance to frequent washing;
- anti-slip properties even in the presence of liquids;
- water impermeability.
